Le Petit Chef

Have you ever wished that you learnt how to cook from a young age?

Who are we?

We are Andy, Mariko, Rebecca, and Steven.

What are we?

- Website meant for parents to cook with their children
- Provides recipes based on preferences from the parents
- Parents can put keywords and the website can generate random ingredients with different danger levels.

1

What danger levels?

- Each recipe comes with different danger levels
- The danger level indicates how dangerous the tools/ingredients are

Future Goals

- We plan on increasing the recipe database
- Add a review system for the recipes

What did we learn?

-Learned some html, Python, Css, JS

-Learned to work as a team

-Used canva to make the logo

-We used a new API
